THE WHISKY WATERLOO.

Decatur Elects a No-License Board of Aldermen—A Close Fight.

The Majorities—All Licenses Expire on May 10th by Limitation.

THE CITY ELECTION.

The annual city election to choose five aldermen in the city council, was held in Decatur yesterday. The issue was "license" or "no license," and whisky met a Waterloo from which it will find hard work to recover within two years at least.
The contest of yesterday was one of the hottest and most determined in the history of Decatur, and, while the result is something of a pleasing surprise party to the prohibitionists, it is at the same time a bitter pill for the 26 saloon-keepers and their friends to swallow. The license men were confident of winning in the fourth and fifth wards, and believed they would elect Russell in the first, with a close call for Schroll in the third; but their calculations were all knocked into pi when the returns came in, showing that the prohibitionists had elected Wayne, Muzzy and Starr, giving the anti-license advantages a majority of one in the next council which will probably assume the reins of municipal government during the present month, certainly not later than Monday, May 6th, the first meeting in the month.

THE VOTE IN THE CITY.

A total of 2,343 votes were cast in the five wards in the city. Below is the vote and majorities by wards:

FIRST WARD.
Wm. J. Wayne, prohibition.....	353
John W. Russell, license.....	326 Wayne's majority.....
27
SECOND WARD.
L. E. Muzzy, prohibition.....	297
Jas. W. Huddleston, ".....	155
Muzzy's maj.....
142
THIRD WARD.
W. H. Starr, prohibition.....	259
Wm. Schroll, license.....	243
Starr's maj.....

FOURTH WARD.
Henry C. Oakes, license.....	234
John Lindsey, prohibition.....	120
Oakes' majority.....
114
FIFTH WARD.
John Gogerty, license.....	133

The members of the next council will be: No-License—William J. Wayne and James C. Luke, first ward; L. E. Muzzy and John Alexander, second ward; W. H.
Starr and T. T. Roberts, third ward—6.
License—Henry C. Oakes and A. N. Diehl, fourth ward; John Gogerty and Andrew Sheemaker, fifth ward—4.

The next council will stand 6 to 4 for anti-license, and, as all licenses expire on May 10th of the present year by limitation, the 26 saloons in Decatur will remain closed after that date.

ELECTION REFLECTIONS.

They say Dr. Moore "is a second Branble in the third ward," with "Bro.
Morehouse, Bro. Wiswell, Bro. Dimmett and Bro. Chenoweth good assistants."

The war-cry in the second was, "vote for the nominee," and Muzzy came out ahead by a large majority. E. D. Bartholomew and Theo. Nelson had plenty of fun, and so did the opposition.

The bells of the First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches rang out victoriously last night announcing the defeat of the license alderman.

In the fifth ward Gogerty got in his work and downed the field.

W. H. Starr and W. J. Wayne, the alderman-elect, held a lively reception at J. C. Starr & Son's harness store last night. The room was crowded, congratulations were general, and cigars plentiful.

The liquor drinkers will have plenty of time to bleach out.

Will Wayne, after the polls closed, conceded Russell's election by 75; but when the result was announced he felt good all over, and so did his friends.

The temperance will hold a jubilee meeting at the tabernacle Monday night. M. P. Murphy will speak and help to jubilate.

The prohibitionists claim the victory on the square issue, and hold that the temperance sentiment in Decatur is rapidly on the increase. They also assert that within a few years every ward in the city will be carried by the anti-license element.

The license men and saloon keepers attribute their defeat to disaffection in their ranks, a lack of unity in action, and charge much of their loss to the action of the license council in planting saloons in various places where the people protested against the same. "The Morgan saloon," says one, "lost us the first ward, and had its influence in the first ward. And then the Humphrey saloon in the fifth, near the new school house was a bad move. All these things with the extension of brick sidewalks to remote parts of the city, where the expense is a hardship to struggling property owners, had their effect, which with spite work in the first and third wards, lost us the battle." "It's a tough dose," continued the speaker, "but we can take our medicine while the city will lose it $13,000, which it secured from the liquor men for license last year."

Another liquor dealer who had just sent off three postal cards commanding orders for cigars, declared that "Decatur is too big a town for the no-license system to be adopted. It will kill any town of this size. The temperance fanatics ought to proceed at once and fence in the town; put up a small gate and over it hang a sign painted in red: 'No admission except on business.'" Thus dealer was especially hot when the church bells rang out to his youthful color and lustre. People with gray hair prefer to use the Beaconer, rather than proclaim to the world through their bleached locks that they are becoming aged and passing on to decay. 14 state law says we shall have 14 aldermen in the council. It will be in order for the new council to get an official census and redistrict the city, so we will have seven wards and 2 aldermen from each ward.

Macon, Blue Mound and Niantic went anti-license yesterday, and now there is not a license town in Macon county.

THE MACON ELECTION.

The anti-license party won at Macon yesterday. Below is the vote:

Anti-License—Treasurer, Besche, 36; aldermen, Steel, 93; Bivans, 96; Biddle, 87.
License—Treasurer, Cazalot, 67; aldermen, Bradley, 70; Swartz, 63; Hemphill, 69.

Against cows running at large, 81; for, 63.

OUTSIDE TOWNS.

The following towns went anti-license yesterday: Casey, Earl, Jonesboro, Monmouth, Mt. Vernon, Macon, Martinsville, Monticello, Oregon, Woodstock and Taylorville. At Taylorville the prohibitionists four aldermen and magistrate, by majorities ranging from 35 to 50.

Anti-License—Tuscola, Monmouth, De Soto, Noble, Henry, Chesterfield, Rock-bridge, Delmar, Macon.

The towns going for license were Belvidere, Clinton, Champaign, Carrollton, Elkington, Gilman, Hannapolis, Jerseyville, Mattoon, Petersburg and Rockford.

License—DuQuoin, Chenoa, Hillsboro, Shelbyville, Danville, Benton, Mendota, Leroy.

VOTED TO GO TO WORK.

The Striking Miners' Action To-Day—All Lovely Again.

A meeting of about 60 striking miners was held at Eldorado hose house this forenoon to take action on the proposition to return to work at the Decatur shaft at the reduced rate, 70 cents per ton. James Russell was chairman of the meeting, and John Felker, secretary. On the motion to return to work at the reduced rate, the miners voted in the affirmative, the vote being 41 to 14.

All of the striking miners, who are now in the city, will go to work to-morrow morning. They will be given employment by the company.

The miners desire to return their thanks to the Knights of Labor, the cigar-makers and the printers for their sympathy expressed in resolutions.

A Justice Meeting.

We are authorized to announce that the home protection party and friends will hold a grand jubilee in celebration of the home protection party on next Monday evening, on which occasion addresses will be made by local speakers, congregating the public over the result of Tuesday's election. One of the speakers will be Mr. M. P. Murphy, and several ministers will participate in the exercises. Business of interest to the anti-license people will be transacted. Committees for the several districts in Decatur township will be appointed with a view of perfecting the temperance organization.
All are invited to attend the jubilee meeting.

The "Meteors."

Saturday night will be signalized by the appearance of Evans, Bryant and Hoey's "Meteors" at the opera house.
The popular and laughable comedy "The Book Agent" will be produced. It is one of the funniest on the road and doubtless it will play to big business. Of the company the New York Herald says: "The one week engagement of the Evans, Bryant and Hoey combination, known as the 'Meteors,' opened successfully at the Booth Theatre last night. The performance was exceedingly amusing, and the Harlemites gave the quartette of actors every evidence of their satisfaction."

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Peoria Crowded With Delegates and Spectators—Gen. Oglesby Greeted With Cheers.

[Special to REPUBLICAN.] PEORIA, ILL., April 16, 12:30 p. m.—The Republican State Convention met in the Academy of Music Hall at 12 o'clock today. It is the largest convention of enthusiastic Republicans ever held in Illinois, over 700 delegates being in attendance. The city is crowded with visitors and necessarily the accommodations are not first-class for all the delegations. The Macon delegation are quartered at the new National Hotel, where Gen. and Mrs.
Oglesby are guests.

THE ORGANIZATION.

The Hon. James H. Connolly, of Coles County, was elected temporary chairman of the convention and Hon. Dan Shepard of Chicago, temporary secretary.

The permanent organization will be effected by electing the Hon. Milton Hay of Springfield, chairman. The secretary will probably be Daniel Shepard.

THE NOMINATIONS.

Gen. R. J. Oglesby will be nominated for governor by acclamation, as will also Henry D. Dement for secretary of state, and Charles Swigart for attorney general.

Gen. Smith appears to be ahead for lieutenant governor, though Gen. Rinaker is making a strong fight.

Senator Hunt is ahead for the nomination for attorney general, and Charles Becker, of Belleville, owing to his geographical location, will certainly get the nomination for state treasurer.

OGLESBY'S RECEPTION.

Gen. Oglesby is everywhere received with enthusiastic cheers and glad shouts of welcome. When he entered the dining hall of the National Hotel yesterday and again this morning, accompanied by Mrs.
Oglesby, both were received with prolonged applause, which came from all parts of the large room. The General is jolly and happy and his parlor is constantly crowded with callers.

It is expected that the work of the convention will be finished by five o'clock this evening.

Alleged Illegal Voting.

Benjamin Bristow and Robert Winston each charged with perjury at the second ward polls in making false affidavits; Lute Sears and John Colwell, each charged with voting illegally at the third ward polls yesterday, were treated last evening. The complainants say they have point-blank evidence against all of the accused, who are colored, and say that they will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law to preserve the purity of the ballot box. The case against Bristow will be investigated before Justice Lowry to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.
Lute Sears took a change of venue to Justice Curtis, where he will have a hearing to-morrow forenoon at 9 o'clock. Winston and Colwell will have a hearing before Justice Lowry this week. Their bail has been fixed at $200 each.

Postponement.

The postponed meeting of the D. H. S.
Alumni will be held on Friday evening, April 18, 1881, at 7:30 o'clock at the High School. E. W. HELLMAN, Pres.

A meeting of the May Festival Committee will be held after Alumni meeting.

We Owe

A debt of gratitude to the German women and physicians who have developed the great medicinal qualities of Root-Clover and other medicinal roots and herbs, as

Dr. J. Jones Root-Clover Tonic, which is the best known remedy for all blood diseases, such as liver troubles, piles, ague and malaria disease, indigestion, loss of appetite, low spirits, headache, and all diseases of the kidneys.

Price 50 cents, of Dr. A. J. Storer, 116 South side new square, Decatur, Ill.

Another combination has been formed to keep up prices. It originated in Pennsylvania, and of course, the object is to advance the price of goods to the highest possible notch. Seventeen companies representing $1,500,000 of capital, have already entered into the combination, and it is to be supposed that a boycotting committee has been appointed to persuade any other struggling concerns that may be in existence to join the combination under penalty of being crushed out.

A Walking Skeleton.

Mr. E. Springer, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I was afflicted with lung fever and abscess on lungs, and reduced to a walking skeleton. Got a free trial bottle of Dr. King's Root-Clover Tonic for Consumption, which did me so much good that I bought a dollar bottle. After using three bottles, found myself once more a completely healthy and strong man, with a hearty appetite and a gain in weight of 45 pounds." Call at Seagraves' and Hennrich's drug store and get a free trial bottle of this certain cure for all Lung Diseases. Large bottles $1.00.

The Daily Republican.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: It would be well to bear in mind that the various candidates for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1880 were quite as much agreed that Abraham Lincoln would make an excellent candidate for Vice President as the candidates this year are that his son would admirably answer such a purpose. The inference is of that kind which goes without saying.

Congressman A. HARRIS SMITH, of the Ninth Pennsylvania District, now probably regrets his action in voting for the Fitz John Porter bill.

He has been elected to Congress by the Republicans six times. He would be elected a seventh time but for his vote in question, which led to his defeat at the primaries last week by a majority of 3,000. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic were particularly active against him.

For the Republican.

A Dialogue.

Democrat.—When the Republican party came to power in 1861 we had very few millionaires in the country, now they are counted by the
